

CRL medicine: Monitor's recruitment

du 12 mai 2017 au 26 mai 2017

The Language Resource Center at the faculty of Medicine, Tours is seeking to recruit several highly motivated, dynamic, responsible monitors who are fluent in English.

- Working in the language center involves different tasks.
- These will include general library work such as giving out student log sheets, providing help and assistance to the students at the information desk, handing out DVDs and headphones, shelving language resource material.
- As a monitor you are responsible for showing up at your scheduled time.
- You will be paid the minimum student wage and you must agree to work at least 20 hours during the semester.
- The language centre will be open from Monday September 11th until December 15th.
- The opening hours are from 10am to 4pm. Please apply by sending a letter of motivation and CV in English to kay.mccarthy@univ-tours.fr.
Closing date for all applications : 26 May 2017
